Thousands march in city to protest Rly. line in Kodagu

Lakhs of trees will be felled; Rainfall will deplete; Cauvery River will run dry

The protest rally passing through Hardinge Circle in city this morning.

Mysuru, Feb. 18 (MTY&BCT)- Black colour dominated the city this morning as over 10,000 people, wearing black caps and black attire, protested against unnecessary development projects in Kodagu, primarily the proposed Thalassery-Mysuru Railway line that cuts through the vast pristine forest area in South Kodagu. Those not wearing black dress sported black bands on their arms.

Youths, men, women, elderly and children from Mysuru, Kodagu and Bengaluru descended on the Karnataka Exhibition Grounds for the 'Kodagu Against Railway' rally to raise their voice against the Railway and National Highway projects that will ultimately lead to the drying up of River Cauvery, the lifeline of the people of South Karnataka and Tamil Nadu.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The recent remark by the outgoing Vice-President, Hamid Ansari, that there is growing unease among Dalits and minorities caused rancour amongst some of our fellow citizens. It is a bit puzzling why, for this was not an unusual observation. Many Indians, including the former President, Pranab Mukherjee, had raised concerns about growing intolerance in our country and the threat to our pluralist ethos. But Ansari's remarks were seen by some to be particularly disturbing because they appeared to damage the country's image. Some went as far as to say that they were an insult to the country. A concern with the country's image is not to be scoffed at or dismissed as inconsequential. If our country is portrayed negatively, we feel ashamed, angry, or even outraged. There is no denying the importance of a country's image.

Oh my God !

Lima: Alexander Jheferson Delgado, a convicted sex offender and burglar from Peru, was captured by Police a year after successfully escaping prison by drugging his identical twin bother, who had come to visit him, and putting on his clothes. On Jan.10, 2017, Alexander Jheferson Delgado pulled off one of the most incredible prison escapes in history. That day, Delgado's twin brother Giancarlo came to visit. After meeting him in the common area of the prison, the two 28-year-old brothers went to Alexander's cell, where the inmate allegedly offered Giancarlo a soda laced with sedatives. When he woke up the sight of concerned guards standing over him. Still groggy from the sedatives, Giancarlo Delgado told the guards what had happened. It was only after repeated pleas that authorities agreed to check his identity. Although he was never actually charged, the man was arrested and investigated on suspicion of having aided his brother escape. Alexander was captured at a house in Callao, a port city near the capital Lima recently.

Psychological support for investors

Moscow: Investing in crypto-currency like Bitcoin is a bit like going on a wild roller-coaster these days, and that can really take a toll on investors' psyche. To help them better cope with the fear of losing huge sums of money due to devaluation, one Russian crypto-currency fund will start offering investors free psychological support. Moscow-based Blockchain Fund, one of the largest crypto-currency funds in Russia, recently announced that it has hired a professional psychologist to counsel desperate investors who lost a lot of money after due to Bitcoin sharp drop in value and make sure that they "don't do anything stupid." Owner Andrey Karpukhov claims the new service will help depressed investors recover mentally and return to their normal lives. Pihovkina, who apparently has experience working with people who have lost important sums of money during the Russian ruble crisis of 2014, claims that talking to a professional psychologist can help investors better deal with the situation and hopefully gain a more positive outlook on life.

Startup Charcha at SDM-IMD

Mysuru, Feb.18- Shri Dharmasthala Manjunatheshwara Institute for Management Development (SDM-IMD) had organised an entrepreneurship event called Startup Charcha on Feb. 9 as part of various entrepreneurship activities undertaken by 'Swayam — Students E Cell of SDM-IMD.'

The event also brought together the best entrepreneurial minds who provided insights tempered with practical advice on Startups to MBA students and budding entrepreneurs.

Outlining the various activities of Entrepreneurship Cell at SDM-IMD, Dr. M. R. Suresh, Professor and Facilitator of the Cell, highlighted that SDM-IMD is well on the pathway to emerge as knowledge resource centre in the area of entrepreneurship to guide not only budding entrepreneurs but also other institutions as well.

Ajith R. Pai, Jt. Managing Director, VWF Group of Industries - Mysuru, who delivered the keynote address said that the most important aspect was not having an idea but the execution of it. Advising MBA students, he said, "entrepreneurs are those who start working on their ideas and wantrepreneurs are those who just have an idea."

He also dwelt on the reasons why most of the businesses did not last for more than three generations and the importance of exiting an outmoded enterprise.

There was a Panel Discussion on the theme 'Getting Started in Enterprise - Issues and Facets,' moderated by Dr. M. R. Suresh, Professor at SDM-IMD. The panellists were Vipin Prasad, Founder, Joiningdotsinc.com and SDM-IMD alumnus; Sanjay Srinivasamurthy, Management Consultant and Strategic Advisor; and Prof. Rajendra Todalbagi, SDM-IMD.

The discussion highlighted that the policy environment was very favourable in the country for Startups with our Prime Minister himself perceiving Startups as instruments of transformation. The government was providing not just financial help but also operational guidance and risk minimisation support for entrepreneurs. The panellists told the young minds in the audience not to wait for a favourable policy to be written but work on possible ideas and convince investors.

There was also a student case study presentation event Prerana in which four teams profiled successful entrepreneurs in different fields.

VOICE OF THE READER

Avoid travelling in goods transport vehicles

Sir,

Very recently on 14th February this year, a lorry carrying 46 people on a pilgrimage from Chikballapur district met with an accident near Giddalur town in Prakasam district of Andhra Pradesh when it overturned at a road curve. Although it became difficult for local people as they did not know Kannada, they helped in shifting the injured to nearby hospitals. In this accident, four people were killed and 15 seriously injured. Earlier also similar incidents were reported near Maddur, wherein 13 people died on the spot and 50 people were injured in October last year.

In our country, it is illegal to transport people in goods transport vehicles like trucks, lorries, canters, etc., and it is an offence under Section 177 of the MV Act. People are not taking the law seriously and are getting away by paying a paltry penalty of Rs.100 or Rs. 300 and ignoring the problems like this. Saving money is the prime motto of such practices; however, it is risky for the people and for the driver. People should avoid such practice and travel in buses or vans only.

'STAR OF MYSORE is a Brand of Mysuru'

H.N. Ananth Kumar, Union Minister of Parliamentary Affairs, Chemicals, Fertilizers and Pharmaceuticals, delivering the presidential address during the 40th anniversary celebrations of SOM in city yesterday. Seen on the dais are K.B. Ganapathy, Editorial Advisor, SOM, Devdutt Pattanaik, Indian Mythologist and T.J.S. George, Editorial Advisor, The New Indian Express.*

Mysuru, Feb. 18 (BCT) - "Star of Mysore eveninger is a darling and a Brand of Mysuru and is now called in the same breath as 'Mysore Pak' and 'Mysooru Mallige.' I have seen eveningers like Mid-Day in Mumbai and Bengaluru. But in this part of the country, Star of Mysore has earned its unique and respectful place and has touched the hearts of readers."

These were the words of H.N. Ananth Kumar, Union Minister for Parliamentary Affairs, Chemicals, Fertilizers and Pharmaceuticals. Ananth Kumar was delivering his Presidential Address at Star of Mysore's 40th Anniversary celebrations organised at the Platinum Jubilee Auditorium here last evening.

Beginning his speech with the lines published in 'Editor's Bottomline' published in Star of Mysore dated Feb. 17 where columnist Veena Venugopal had written about MP Renuka Chowdhury's cackle during Prime Minister Narendra Modi's speech in the Parliament recently, Ananth Kumar said, "I don't want to detail Renuka Chowdhury's laugh and the PM's response to it but I want to say that Star of Mysore's Editorial Advisor Ganapathy still uses his pen to write with great wit and sarcasm and that is demonstrated with his choice of Editor's Bottomline."

"There is no eveninger worth remembering for its content. Star of Mysore is an exception to this as it is an opinion-maker," he said and called upon the audience to give a standing ovation to Ganapathy and the audience gladly did so.

"Narada is considered to be the first journalist as he carried news all over. But I consider Lord Hanuman as the first journalist as he carried the news of Lord Ram to Sita in Lanka and faced a risky and threatening situation where the guards of Lanka King Ravana set fire to Hanuman's tail. Hanuman later set Ravana's Palace on fire," he said.

Quoting a Kannada anecdote, the Union Minister, who is a six-time MP from Bengaluru South, said, "A poet sees what the sun cannot see. Here I say, a journalist sees what a poet cannot see. You journalists see we politicians through a microscope and if we escape, you see us with X-ray and even telescope. A journalist's life is arduous as he faces many threats," he said.

Heaping praises on SOM and its Editorial Advisor Ganapathy, he said, "If there is a torch-bearer in this part of the country that always stood for liberty and equality, it is Star of Mysore."

"Ganapathy always wages a silent war with the establishment and in the process, he and his family faced many threats and attacks. This is easier said than done. I salute the courage and determination," the Minister said amidst thunderous applause from the audience.

The humorous part of his speech was when he narrated the incident where an Editor in Soviet Union was arrested for an article titled, 'Supreme Soviet Stupid'. "The Editor was awarded 15 years jail. Five years for defamation and 10 years for revealing an official secret," he said, leaving the audience in splits.

"You have presented me a Kodava knife (Peeche Kathi) as a memento. Like a knife cuts through lies and deception, let the pen held by Ganapathy (like a knife) cut through falsehoods and expose corruption and wrongdoings in the society," he said.

On the occasion, five Department Heads of SOM — Foreman K. Kumar (Printer Kumar), Circulation Manager T.S. Gopinath, Advertisement Manager Maria Fernandes, Manager (Accounts and Administration) H.P. Prasad and Executive Editor Meera Appaiah — were felicitated by the dignitaries [See pic. on page 12]. Publisher of the book T.S. Chayapathy was also honoured during the celebrations.

K.B. Ganapathy delivered the opening address. JSS University Director (Academic) Dr. P.A. Kushalappa and Preethi Prakash Prabhu, both of Geeth Gaatha Chal-fame rendered the invocation. Vikram Muthanna, Managing Editor of Star of Mysore, welcomed the gathering. Mickey Bopanna, Executive Director, Academy Newspapers Pvt. Ltd. (Publisher of SOM and Mysooru Mithra), proposed a vote of thanks. SOM Features Editor N. Niranjan Nikam compered the programme.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, former Minister S.A. Ramdas, MLA Vasu, retd. Justice M.F. Saldanha, Bishop-Emeritus Thomas Antony Vazhapilly, Fr. Dennis Noronha, former Mangalore and Goa Universities Vice-Chancellor Prof. B. Sheik Ali, JSS Mahavidyapeetha Executive Secretary Dr. C.G. Betsurmath, Dakshina Kannada ZP CEO and Mysooru Mithra Columnist Dr. M.R. Ravi and others were present among the audience.

K.B. Ganapathy presenting the traditional Kodava 'Peeche Kathi,' an ornamental dagger with a handle terminating in the shape of the head of a parrot or peacock and a sheath beautifully decorated with a gold covering and embedded with rubies. The Peeche Kathi is linked with a richly designed silver chain, which is tucked behind the chele (sash) to the right.

Book publisher T.S. Chayapathy being felicitated by Union Minister H.N. Ananth Kumar and K.B. Ganapathy.

Over 35 buses from various parts of Kodagu had come to the rally carrying people from Madikeri, Kushalnagar, Virajpet, Gonikoppal, Ponnampet, Srimangala, Balele and Kutta. The protest was organised under the banner "Kodagu Ulisi Horata Samithi" that does not belong to any political party.

A rally was taken out from the Exhibition Grounds and proceeded towards Hardinge Circle, Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple and returned to Hardinge Circle and to the Exhibition Grounds, where leaders and environmental activists addressed the protesters. Protesters, carrying placards and banners, opposed the Railway line. Over 50 bikers wearing black dress accompanied the protesters.

A team from Kannur in Kerala too joined the protest and it was led by Neelakantan and Manoj. They carried placards written in Malayalam, opposing the Railway line. Mysuru Hotel Owners Association, Gowda Samaja, Amma Kodava Samaja, Kodava Muslim Association, Heggade Samaja, all Kodava Samajas in Kodagu, Mysuru Kodava Samaja, Cauvery Education Society, Cauvery Mahila Sangha, Akhila Kodava Samaja, Kerala Hindu Association Kodagu had extended their support to the protest and even participated in the rally.

Leaders including Coorg Wildlife Society President Colonel C.P. Muthanna, noted environmentalist Suresh Heblikar, Supreme Court Advocate Brijesh Kalappa, Kokkalemada Manju Chinnappa, Machimada Ravindra, Kodagu Mysuru MP Pratap Simha and others addressed the gathering. Sportsperson Arjun Devaiah, former MLC Arun Machaiah and others were present.

In his address, Col. C.P. Muthanna said, "Kodagu is the principal catchment of River Cauvery and contributes over 70% of the total inflow into the KRS Dam. The Cauvery River is the life line for South India and sustains over eight crore people and 600 major industries across the region. Railway lines will be nothing but death knell for Cauvery and Kodagu," he said.

"These mindless projects are being done to cater to the tourism industry. However, when Kodagu has a population of barely 5 lakh, getting between 14 to 20 lakh tourists annually is not sustainable. There should be a cap on tourists," said Muthanna, adding that the organisation was preparing to file Public Interest Litigation (PIL) petitions in the High Court to stop the projects.

Concern over Cauvery, Western Ghats

"You will not get an ounce of water to drink and the entire Cauvery Basin will go dry. Over 60,000 trees have been cut to lay a high-tension power line from Mysuru to Kozhikode in Kerala and we are seeing its effects now as since the past two years there is lack of rainfall in the catchment areas. If the destruction continues, the day is not far when Cauvery goes dry," Muthanna said.

In his address, Suresh Heblikar cautioned the government from taking up such projects. "Western Ghats is formed billions of years ago and unfortunately politicians and policy makers are not realising the importance of forests and greenery. This destruction will spell a doom for all of us and such destructive projects must be stopped.

"Railway line will decimate Kodagu that has already been ravaged by indiscriminate and unwanted development like the Mysuru-Kozhikode high-tension power line that has passed through South Kodagu to supply power to Kerala and for which over 60,000 trees were felled," he said.

MP Blames Congress govt.

MP Pratap Simha chose to blame the Congress Govt. for the Thalassery-Mysuru Railway line and said the proposal was mentioned in the 2012-2013 Karnataka Budget presented by Chief Minister Siddharamaiah.

"The Union Govt. has no such plans and I have already discussed with Railway Minister Piyush Goyal and this project will not be allowed," he said and added that the Kerala government and politicians are pressurising the Karnataka government to implement the project.

We must learn to live with each other's myths, says Devdutt Pattanaik

India's most popular mythologist delivers Star of Mysore 40th Anniversary Lecture

Indian Mythologist Devdutt Pattanaik delivering the 40th Anniversary lecture in city last evening.

Mysuru, Feb. 18 (BCT) - Devdutt Pattanaik, an Indian mythologist, writer and Star of Mysore columnist, known for his work on ancient Indian scriptures, delivered the Star of Mysore 40th Anniversary Lecture at the celebrations held at the Platinum Jubilee Auditorium in city last evening.

Beginning his address with his 10-year-long association with Star of Mysore, Devdutt explained how meanings change over time and over centuries. Before dwelling deep on mythology, he illustrated two words "Nyay" and "Gay" and explained to the audience how the meanings changed.

"The word 'Nyay,' which earlier meant rational and systematic thinking, now means 'justice.' The word 'Gay,' which earlier meant happiness, now means homosexual. Like this, the meaning of the word 'mythology' too has changed over centuries," he said.

Devdutt, known for his prolific writings on mythology that in a way influences the way society perceives myth said, "In colonial times, Polytheism was declared mythology. Today we know Theology is mythology of monotheists. Ideology is mythology of atheists."

About Mythology

Explaining the change in the word mythology, he said that while in 19th Century, it was Polytheism (worship of or belief in multiple deities), 20th Century was based on rationalism and 'measurement.' "Truth in 20th Century is that could be measured, proved and quantified. Everything that was concerned with divinity was dismissed as myth and if measurable evidence is not produced that means you are lying. In 21st Century, mythology is subjective truth," he explained.

"Despite hailing from a country well-known for its multitude of cultures and rich mythology, the average Indian's knowledge of the scripture is poor. In modern times when digital proficiency has become the most important skill, more so than the understandings of right and wrong, ethical and non-ethical actions and the considerations of humanity as a whole, mythology has taken a back seat. They have come to be regarded only as stories for children with no bearing on the modern human life," he observed.

A frog in the well

"Unfortunately, scientific temper taught us to disrespect religion. The education taught at school systematically demolished beliefs, stories. We are living in a world of "Koopa Mandooka" (Mithya or Finite Truth). We need to move towards Anantha Sathya (Infinite Truth).

He told the audience that was listening with rapt attention that with the modern generation barely taking into account the importance of Indian mythology, there's a high chance that children being born at this time will be removed from the tales that give an idea of the roots of their culture.

Devdutt, who has written over 30 books, explaining how stories, symbols and rituals construct the subjective truth (myths) of ancient and modern cultures around the world, said, "mythology tells people how they should see the world. There is no one mythology for the world today or for the future. Different people will have their own mythology, re-framing old ones or creating new ones."

Myths are necessary

"Anantha Sathya is not binary as in Science. Science is limited. When we use Western way of thinking, truth is static or limited. But if you think Indian way, it is infinite. We need the myth to feel good about ourselves. Every culture creates these myths and transmits it through stories, symbols, iconography and rituals. In the last 100 years, nations were established based on these myths," he explained.

"Myths have nothing to do with 'history.' History is time-bound. Myth is timeless. History tells us how people lived in the past. Myth tells us how heroes and Gods live all the time. Western mythology is far more glamorous as it establishes 'villains' and 'victims' and calls for 'heroes' to act. But Indian mythology is not just that. It expands the scope and speaks in terms of infinity that is more wisdom- driven and less glamorous. Indian mythology is like clear water waiting for the thirsty to come and drink," he explained.

On truth

"Behind mythology is a myth and behind myth a truth — an inherited truth about life and death, about nature and culture, about perfection and possibility, about hierarchies and horizons. This truth, according to Devdutt, is hidden beneath the hyperbolic and fantastical nature of mythology," he said on 'truth.' Interspersing his lecture with quotes from Sanskrit, like "Alpa Buddhi Mahabhayankaram" (half-baked knowledge is dangerous), Devdutt said that a Koopa Mandooka (a frog in the well) is confident with its limited knowledge while a sage is not confident as he is willing to listen and learn.

Somebody's truth

"I want people to understand that a myth is "somebody's truth" and so needs respect. We still have the colonial hangover and believe that my truth is the truth, and we have the scientific arrogance that objectivity is truth, or rationality is truth, and dismiss subjectivity. We are trained to divide the world into fact (everybody's truth) and fiction (nobody's truth). Even journalists and historians fall into this trap. This is the primary source of all conflicts," he said. "If only we allowed people to revel in their myth and taught ourselves to live with other people's myth, the world would be better. Different people imagine the world differently, and so have different notions of God and life and purpose and death," he observed.

On Bharata and Bahubali

Concluding his lecture with the story of Bharata and Bahubali (as the 88th Mahamastakabhisheka is underway at Shravanabelagola) he said that Bahubali and Bharata were among the 100 sons to their parents.

"When the power struggle between Bahubali and Bharata took place, Bahubali faced a unique situation. He had to bow before Bharata as he was his elder brother, and he refused to bow before him and as such he had to renounce the throne. If he renounced the throne he would have to bow before his 98 younger brothers who had renounced the throne before him and were seniors to him (Bahubali) at the religious mutt though in age they were younger to him. If one observes the statue of Bahubali, one can see creepers encircling his legs. This shows that he is pulled down preventing him from spiritual elevation, hence is different from other Thirthankaras."

SOM has a relationship of affection with its readers: T.J.S. George

The New Indian Express Editorial Advisor T.J.S. George (extreme right) releasing the book 'Star of Mysore - Story of a unique evening english newspaper' written by SOM Founder and Editor-in-Chief K.B. Ganapathy, during the 40th anniversary celebrations of SOM yesterday along with K.B. Ganapathy, Union Minister Ananth Kumar and Mythologist Devdutt Pattanaik.

Mysuru, Feb.18 (BCT)- The 40th Anniversary celebrations of Star of Mysore held at the Platinum Jubilee Auditorium last evening had writer and biographer Thayil Jacob Sony George, better known as T. J.S. George as special guest. He is a recipient of Padma Bhushan in 2011 in the field of Literature and Education.

George, who is the Editorial Advisor to The New Indian Express, Bengaluru, released 'Star of Mysore - Story of a unique evening english newspaper,' a book penned by K.B. Ganapathy.

Speaking after the book release, George, who is known as an eternal wordsmith, said that the event was a heart-warming occasion. "At a time when preferences and money-making is dominating the world of journalism, SOM is contributing to the society through its service, and honesty of Ganapathy" he said.

"Looking at the crowd and the bonding of people with SOM, it can be termed as a relationship of affection. When other newspapers have a business relationship or a relationship based on loyalty, SOM has a relationship based on affection," he said.

The veteran senior journalist and one of the best known columnists in India, George continues his fight against social injustice, corruption and political anarchies through his columns. "SOM is a noble newspaper, motivated by noble ideas and driven by noble principles," he said.

Mentioning the name of Journalist Pothan Joseph whose career spanned the twenty years before and twenty years after India's independence and who worked with notable people of the time such as Jinnah, Annie Besant, Gandhi, Sarojini Naidu, and Motilal Nehru, George defined the term 'Managing Editor.'

"During the time of Pothan Joseph, newspaper owners who just had money and lacked editorial experience re-designated themselves as 'Managing Editor' who is neither a manager nor an editor. "But SOM Managing Editor Vikram Muthanna is different. He is an editor and at the same time a manager," George said.

Suttur Seer greets SOM

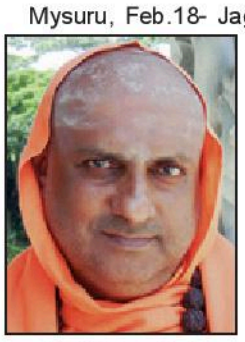
Mysuru, Feb.18- Jagadguru Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Mahaswamiji of Suttur Srikshethra, who could not attend the Anniversary celebrations of Star of Mysore (SOM) last evening due to prior engagement, has sent the following message greeting SOM and the same was read out at the function.



Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji

Dear Sri Ganapathy,

We felt immensely happy that the event is celebrated with well-deserved grandeur in the presence of Hon'ble Sri Ananth Kumar, Union Minister, Sri TJS George, Editorial Advisor, The New Indian Express and Sri Devdutt Pattanaik, Indian Mythologist and Author.

'Star of Mysore' has become an inseparable part of evening tea with almost all Mysureans. Commend your team for Journalistic Excellence and the unfailing dedication to the interests of the nation. The news stories and features of the Daily have always been a reliable source of information and continue to be thought-provoking, challenging and inspirational. The newspaper has proven itself to be indispensable to Mysureans not only in Mysuru but also elsewhere.

We hope that this memorable day and the emotions that accompany this occasion will provide you with additional encouragement and enthusiasm to continue your superior work for our people into the future. May God add many more years of journalistic endeavour to the team 'Star of Mysore.' May the 40th anniversary be a huge success.

Though we very much wanted to be a part of the seminal celebrations, due to pre-scheduled commitments we would not be able to make it.

With Best Wishes,

Yours in the Service of God

Hyderabad tourist dies after assault by rafting staff at Dubare

Seven rafting staff arrested

Madikeri, Feb. 18 (PS&KS)- In a tragic incident, a 21-year-old tourist from Hyderabad succumbed to injuries at a private hospital in Mysuru on Feb. 16 where he was being treated for the injuries he had sustained when a rafting personnel assaulted him on the head with a wooden oar at Dubare Rafting Camp coming under Nanjarayapatna Gram Panchayat near Kushalnagar on Feb. 15.

Razi Ahmed

The deceased tourist has been identified as Razi Ahmed (21). He had come along with other tourists from Hyderabad in three buses.

The tourists, on Feb. 15 had gone on rafting when the raft in which Ahmed and others were rafting got stuck between the rocks as there was less water in the river.

Soon, verbal duel ensued between the rafter (the person who guides the raft) and the tourists resulting in Ahmed and the rafter exchanging blows in the raft.

When the raft was brought back to the banks of the river, a team of other rafters joined together and tried to compromise the issue.

But again, a fight broke out with one of the rafter hitting the head of Ahmed with the wooden oar resulting in severe injuries to the head of Ahmed. The rafters also attacked other tourists resulting in injuries to tourists identified as Yousuf, Abdulla, Rajashekar, Nasir and Azahad.

Soon, Kushalnagar Police, who arrived at the spot on being informed, admitted Ahmed and others to Kushalnagar Government Hospital, where first aid was provided to them.

Ahmed was later shifted to Columbia Asia Hospital in Mysuru for further treatment where he breathed his last on Feb. 16 after failing to respond to the treatment.

Kushalnagar Police who have collected footages captured by CCTV cameras installed at vantage points at the rafting venue, have arrested seven rafters identified as Prakash, Manjunath, Yadu, Somaiah, Mahesh, Nasir and Deepak.

It is alleged that though Dubare Rafting camp comes under the Tourism Department, there is a lobby among the rafters to take tourists for rafting at fancy rates (There is no fixed price for rafting) and there are a lot of illegal rafters than licensed rafters at Dubare Rafting Camp.

Locals said that though they had submitted a memorandum to the District Administration to stop the menace of illegal rafters, no action has been taken till date.

Kushalnagar Police, who have registered a case in this regard, are investigating.

The van is said to belong to a private school at Bilikere and was ferrying children from surrounding villages to the school. All the injured children were shifted to JSS Hospital in Mysuru where they are said to be recovering. However, no case has been registered in this regard, it is learnt.

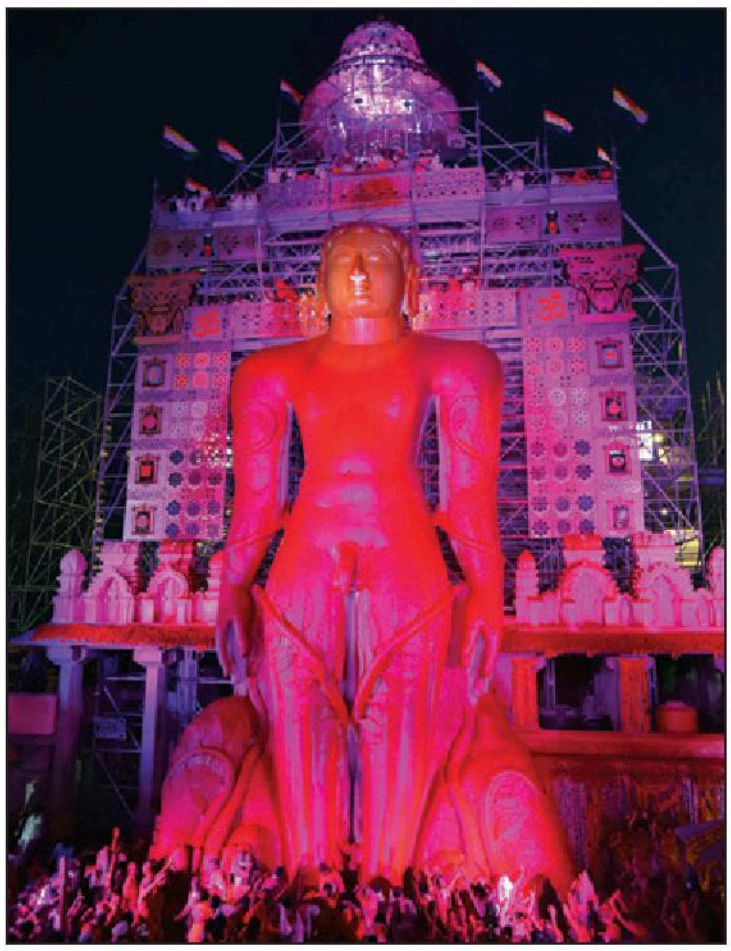
Mahamastakabhisheka begins

A spectacular view of the ongoing Mahamastakabhisheka at Vindhyagiri Hills.



Shravanabelagola, Feb.18- Lakhs of devotees who had come from far and near watched the once in 12-year spectacle as the 88th Mahamastakabhisheka (anointment) to the 58.8 ft tall monolith statue of Bahubali began yesterday at this hill shrine. The anointment to the statue is the second part, as the pujas and other rituals had begun from Feb.7.

Yesterday first Mahamastakabhisheka with 108 kalashas began. Swasthi Sri Charukeerthi Bhattaraka Swamiji, the Pontiff of the Shravanabelagola Mutt, led the ritual which was a eye-catching show. The Ashok Patni family of Kishangarh, Rajasthan, purchased the first Kalasha for Rs.11.61 crore through auction and became the first person to perform abhisheka. Kalasha also has gold, silver, diamond and other precious stones.

Ashok Patni was also the first Kalasha bearer in the 2006 Mahamastakabhisheka. Charukeerthi Bhattaraka Swamiji said that the amount will be used for the construction of a 200-bedded hospital in Shravanabelagola.

Later, the ksheerabhisheka was performed. Right from morning 5 till 2 pm the Monks, Matajis and those carrying Kalashas performed various rituals. Lakhs of devotees who had gathered watched the anointment ceremony with a great deal of devotion and joy.

Different types of Abhisheka: Jalabhisheka, Panchamrutha Abhisheka, tender coconut water, sugarcane, turmeric, herbal, sandalwood, red sandalwood, flowers, saffron abhishekas and many other abhishekas and pujas were performed.

The devotees received the abhisheka materials collected near the foot of the statue in the form of prasadam.

From Feb.19 to 25, special pujas and 1008 Kalasha Abhishekas will be performed. For nine days apart from jalabhisheka, panchamrutha abhisheka will be performed.

This time on the demand from the devotees, the Mahamastakabhisheka is being performed for nine days, which is rare.

Acharyas Sri Vardhamanasagara, Sri Vasupujyasagara and Sri Chandraprabhasagara, other monks, Matajis, MLAs C.N. Balakrishna, MLC A. Gopalswamy and thousands of devotees took part.

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah performing Jalabhisheka to Lord Bahubali at Shravanabelagola yesterday in the presence of Hassan District incharge Minister A. Manju, Dharmasthala Dharmadhikari Dr. Veerendra Heggade, Kannada and Culture Minister Umashree and Hassan Deputy Commissioner Rohini Sindhuri.

Siddu refuses doli, climbs Vindhyagiri Hills

Shravanabelagola, Feb.18- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah launched the 88th Mahamastakabhisheka by performing jalabhisheka yesterday. He poured the water six times on the Bahubali statue.

Shravanabelagola Mutt Pontiff Charukeerthi Bhattaraka Swamiji and Dharmasthala Dharmadhikari Dr. Veerendra Heggade were by his side during the anointment.

This century's second Mahamastakabhisheka was launched under the leadership of Sri Vardhamanasagara and later all others present participated in the anointment.

Siddharamaiah climbs the Hill steps

CM Siddharamaiah arrived in Shravanabelagola by helicopter and surprised everyone around him including his security by suddenly taking a decision to climb the 700 steps to reach the top of the Hill. All arrangements had been made to carry him on the doli.

"Shravanabelagola is a holy shrine and Lord Bahubali sacrificed everything and stood in penance preaching non-violence and peace. Therefore, I thought it would not be correct on my part to make the doli-bearers carry me. I had a stent fixed during a heart surgery 18 years ago. But I did not find any trouble climbing," he said.

The 70-year old CM climbed the steps without taking any break or even taking a sip of water till he reached the top of the Vindhyagiri Hills where the majestic statue of Bahubali stands. He, however, asked his officials to pay the doli-bearers even though they did not carry him.

On the second day of the anointment ceremony today, the rituals are expected to go on throughout the day as it was curtailed yesterday. Hence, more devotees are expected to throng the shrine.
